TWO VETERANS LOSE ELECTION

The new reeve of Anson, Hindon and Minden, Sinc Nesbitt, receives congratulations from Reg Booth, former Anson, Hindon and Minden reeve. Nesbitt defeated Booth by 321 votes. "I feel as if a great weight has been lifted off my shoulders," said Booth after the elections were over.

Galway-Cavendish Townships says no

Council rejects funds request

Another township has turned down the request from Anson, Hindon and Minden council for contributions toward their arena.

Galway-Cavendish Township said no to council's request for funds. Council had made the decision to ask adjoining municipalities to contribute funds in September, and since then, Snowdon, Stanhope and Somerville Townships in Victoria County have responded.

A letter was read at the council meeting last Wednesday from the Galway-Cavendish council. It stated that the council "does not support" contributing money toward the arena since the allowance for the expenditure was not in the budget.

"Perhaps we should supply them with information on just how many people from their municipality are using our arena," said deputy reeve Doug Pritchard.

Snowdon Township has been the only municipality who has sent a contribution out of all the municipalities asked. Snowdon council decided to send $50 towards arena costs and wanted details of how many persons (mainly consisting of minor hockey and figure skaters) use the arena from the municipality.

Since many cottagers use the arena far less than the average residents of the township, council reasoned in September that it would not be fair to charge the additional costs to them as well as the permanent residents. Council decided that a request for funds from neighbouring townships would alleviate the problem.

Lutterworth Township is the only municipality which has not responded yet to council's request.

Liquor vote okayed twice, rejected once.

A liquor vote was on the ballot in three townships in the municipal elections Monday in Haliburton County.

Voters in both Stanhope Township and Lutterworth Township voted in favour of the sale of wine and spirits on licenced premises, while voters in Glamorgan Township decided against the establishment of government outlets in the municipality.

In Stanhope, 637 voted in favour, while 188 voted against. In Lutterworth, 567 voted in favour, while 174 voted against. At Glamorgan 224 voted in favour, while 117 voted against.

Unless 60 per cent of the voters are in favour of the liquor question, the plebiscite is defeated.

Lindsay receives assistance fund

John Eakins, Victoria-Haliburton MLA, said last Thursday that he is delighted that the town of Lindsay has been approved under the Industrial Parks Program. Eakins said that two and a half years ago he supported the Ministry of Industry and Tourism when this program was introduced at Queen's Park.

The program was established to assist municipalities to purchase and service land for industrial purposes. The legislation give priority to those communities in eastern and northern Ontario. So far seven municipalities have applied and been approved. They are Brockville, Sault Ste. Marie, Kingston, Township of Gloucester, Town of Renfrew, Township of Kingston and the Town of Lindsay.

Two proposals had been submitted from the town of Lindsay, one municipal and one from the private sector. Because of limited funds, etc., only one could be approved by the Ministry, and so they selected the municipal application.

Eakins said that he also hopes in the very near future that the private submission will be given every consideration.

The local member feels that this is an excellent program to help municipalities attract industry and assist with the employment opportunities in the various areas, and has been keeping the municipalities aware of this program for the last two and a half years.

Eakins also paid tribute to Herb Simpson, the Industrial Commissioner for the Town of Lindsay, who he said is doing an excellent piece of work for the Town of Lindsay and has shown every cooperation both with his member and with the Ministry at Queen's Park.

Association requests speed limit signs

The Horseshoe Lake Property Owners' Association is requesting Anson, Hindon, and Minden council erect speed limit signs in the thin body of water between Horseshoe and Mirror Lakes.

The request was made to council through a letter from association spokesman D. A. Heaven, which was read to council at their meeting last Wednesday.

The Association is also requesting that the township remove a constriction under the bridge on the river, which is apparently causing navigational problems for boaters.

If the township decides to erect the signs, the association must maintain the signs. But council decided Wednesday that before any decision is made on the issue, the Association must inform council how many signs are needed along the waterway and of what type.

A letter will be sent to the association by council informing them of the decision.

Two new dry kilns and new sawdust bins were constructed

Martin completes expansion

A $475,000 expansion has been completed at G.W. Martin Lumber Limited of Harcourt, where two new dry kilns and new sawdust bins were constructed.

The expansion of the dry kilns will give the company a capacity of 12-million feet of kiln dried lumber annually.

The operation at Harcourt employs 245 persons and produces high grade lumber used in the manufacture of furniture. Most of its markets for the high grade lumber are located in Ontario. The company also exports the high grade lumber to markets in the United States and Europe.

The firm also produces railroad ties for Canadian Pacific and Canadian National railways and sells wood to steel manufacturing companies.

Martin Lumber is now searching for new markets for bark and sawdust, both of which could be utilized for fuel. At the present time, the company is burning the sawdust and bark until the markets are found.

The company has operations at Tweed, which employs 90 persons, and Mattawa, which has 145 employees.

The Harcourt operation purchases annually an estimated $5-million worth of goods, services and raw material, revealed vice-president Charles R. Lindsay.

Production levels are the highest ever for the company and the log cutting program for 1979 is set at 49-million board feet for the three plants, of which 50 per cent will be used at Harcourt, he explained.

The expansion of the dry kiln operation cost $400,000, while the new sawdust bins and equipment cost $75,000.

New Stanhope committee elected

A new Stanhope airport committee has been elected for 1979.

The committee was selected following a regular meeting of the outgoing committee members last Friday night. Seven people including one chairman and one vice-chairman will be sitting on the committee.

Brent Walker has been selected as chairman of the committee and Stan Moore will fill the vice-chairman's position. Moore was last year's chairman.

The three other persons who will be sitting on the committee are, Ella Gillies, Gunter Wolm and Larry McKnight. There will be a Stanhope council representative on the committee and Jim McLean, owner of Air Haliburton, will also automatically sit on the committee. The representative from Stanhope council last year was councillor Elgin Stouffer.

Appointees by council will include Louise Watson as secretary-treasurer and Pam Rolfe as assistant secretary-treasurer.

The elections follows a year-end review of the activities of the outgoing committee. The committee discussed the airport study, costs incurred from the fly-in held last spring, and the committee budget for next year.

"We've got to establish a better communication system," said Walker. "We don't even know how much money we've spent until we see the cost sheet."

A cost sprang up on the year-end expenditure sheet which was found to be unaccounted for expenditure. Costs amounting to $400 for Chagres slips charged from Air Haliburton were discovered on the budget sheet.

"They shouldn't even be on there," said owner McLean.

"If somebody needs some gas and hasn't got any money," said McLean, "then I use the Chagres machine for them. Then I'd bring them up to Gerald (Stanhope clerk) and sell them to him. But those costs shouldn't be on the sheet."

Elgin Stouffer, the council's representative on the committee, said that the charges were probably "a mistake" and would be corrected.

The committee itself was formed 10 years ago. Its function is to promote goodwill of airport affairs, to make airport recommendations to council, to develop a budget, to monitor and control all safety practices at the airport and to liaise closely with council concerning airport matters.

Township council holds the line on expenses

Members of Galway-Cavendish Township council are keeping a tight grip on the purse strings during 1978.

Council managed to keep its operation under budget by $4,000 by curtailing the oiling program to compensate for additional construction activity in October, council revealed at its October meeting.

Several road maintenance projects have been completed in the municipality.

A project on McGinnis Lake road is finished, while several small projects will be completed on the road next year.

The Galway road project has been completed for the current year, while the Salmon Lake road project involved removing the hill known as the Alps and resurfacing it with gravel.

Removal of the bad turn on Beaver Lake road was completed in October.

Council is awaiting approval by the provincial government on the Gold Lake bridge project. If approval is not received by November 15, the work will not commence until spring. The project is being handled by the engineering firm of Greer-Galloway.

The engineering firm will provide specifications on the South Shore Crystal Lake local improvement project.

Council recommended retention of the township Jeep and repairs included in the 1979 budget. It will be utilized for special projects.

Responsibility for maintenance has been removed from the roads department by council and placed under the sanitation committee.

Members of council authorized the road superintendent to investigate sites for obtaining fill on a permit basis from the Ministry of Natural Resources.

Winter plowing and sanding for Cavendish will be done under the same arrangement as last year. Ira Robertson will be retained for the winter season at a rate of $20 an hour. The township will maintain sanding and winging back of excess snow.

A copy of a letter sent to Galway-Cavendish from the Ministry of Natural Resources was forwarded to the cottagers' association over McGinnis Lake public access point. The letter indicated the Ministry would issue a permit to the association if the problem persisted.

Council will pass a resolution to be forwarded to Bell Canada supporting residents in the Salmon Lake, White Lake and Fortescue Lake areas on their application for telephone service.

Members of council dealt with several land use applications in October.

Bruce Dettman was informed by council that only two severances were allowed each land owner in the area where he applied for three proposed severances on Concession 10, Lot 11 in Galway Township.

Council approved two of his applications and turned down a third.

Several ratepayers appeared before council to discuss an area of Cavendish Township which has been zoned tourist commercial. Council explained the area had been given that designation because the owner used it in his business at Catchcome Landing.

Council agreed to support an application for severance from Mr. and Mrs. Gutwein, who appeared before members of council to find the best method to divide 300 acres and still stay within the permitted number of severances allowed under the zoning bylaws.

Mr. Ferrill appeared before council to inquire if the Scott's Line road in Cavendish would be plowed this winter and was informed it would be done as long as possible. But due to the road being quite narrow, the plowing will have to cease for the rest of the winter when the bank could no longer be pushed back.

Members of council indicated that the municipality would be prepared to support a severance for the property owned by the estate of Agnes Petrie in Galway Township.

Council approved several vouchers. A general voucher of $9,018.79, a road voucher of $50,827.31, a welfare voucher of $116 and a Canada Works Grant voucher of $2,151.83 were approved.

Council approved a bylaw to license trailers, except trailers located in a trailer camp and for prohibiting such trailers being located in the municipality, except in a trailer camp without a license.

A request from David John Forgie for a severance was supported by council.

Members of council supported an application for severance from Eric O. Westbye in Cavendish Township.

Council authorized the reeve and clerk to sign an agreement with Galway Acres Limited stating that the company assume total responsibility for funding of density-capacity and environmental impact study. The study, which will be undertaken by Bird and Hale Limited, will be on Birch Bark Lake. Council requested from Galway Acres a letter of credit and/or certified cheque accompany the agreement.

The municipality decided not to support making a contribution to the Anson, Hindon and Minden arena board.

Council decided not to support the resolution from the Regional Library System because the municipality is not serviced by it.

The township will petition the Ministry of Transportation and Communications for interim subsidy from January 1, 1978 to October 31, 1978 in the amount of $169,578.83.

Members of council decided to send the proposed transient traders bylaw to the township's solicitor for his comments and advice.

Council authorized the reeve and clerk to spend up to $2,950 to cover printing and postage for circulating of the township's zoning bylaw to all ratepayers.

Authorization was given by council to transfer surplus funds from planned construction allocations for 1978 to Lot 7, Concession 17 in Cavendish Township.

Scott supports bill against pornography

Jake Epp, the Progressive Conservative for Provencher indicated in the house last Wednesday that there is a ground swell of public opinion against pornography.

Speaking during the debate on his Private Member's Bill to outlaw child pornography, Epp stated that people are demanding the government to take steps to end this "trafficking in human degradation".

The Manitoba member declared that while many people may disagree about the definition of obscenity, everyone agrees that child pornography is abhorrent. The Private Member's Bill would have made it a crime to photograph, produce, publish, import, export, distribute or sell anything that depicts a child younger than 16 years of age performing a sexual act or assuming sexually suggestive pose while in a state of undress. Punishment would have been up to two years in jail.

Last session the government introduced a similar bill providing punishments of 10 years in jail or $100,000 fine for distribution and production of child pornography. That bill died when the last session of parliament ended and the government did not re-introduce it. In speaking in support of Epp's bill, P.C. member for Surrey-White Rock, Benno Friesen, declared that there is not a member of parliament who does not believe in censorship as everyone agrees there are some things which should not be published. The B.C. member went on to declare that "what we don't agree on is what is destructive". Friesen expressed concern that some members of the house would "rather preserve the sanctity of the purveyors of pornography than the sanctity of children who become victims of it". As is the case for all Private Member's Bills, there is a time limit during which the bill must be voted on or referred to the standing committee. Regrettably, Liberal member for Lewis, Raynald Guay, "talked out" the bill and thus the hour allotted expired before it could come to a vote.

Victoria-Haliburton M.P., Bill Scott, commended his colleague M.P. Epp for his moral leadership in this important matter. He expressed disappointment and concern that the government member had not allowed the bill to be referred to the standing committee on justice and legal affairs for further consideration.

Farm tax program changed: Eakins

John Eakins, MLA Victoria-Haliburton said last Tuesday that he would like his constituents to be aware of the changes to the 1978 farm tax reduction program, which will re-define eligible property.

To qualify in 1978, a farm property must have produced at least $4,000 worth of agricultural products over the year. The previous qualifying amount was $2,000. In cases where the owner rents the property to a farmer, the value of goods produced by the rented portion of the property alone must be valued at $4,000.

Under the farm tax reduction program, the Ministry of Agriculture and Food pays half the municipal property taxes on eligible farm property. The program is administered by the Ministry of Intergovernmental Affairs.

Thomas Wells notified Eakins that 1978 application forms will be mailed to owners by the end of the year. Farmers will then have until the end of next year to apply for assistance with their 1978 taxes.

Election fever was high as interested citizens gathered at Dysart et al Municipal Office, Monday night to watch the returns come into the office. The slate will remain the same for the next two years.

Unemployment Insurance is now more responsive to conditions in Ontario.

Note: Further changes to the Unemployment Insurance Program have been proposed by the Government. They will come into effect only when they have been enacted by Parliament.

Canada's Unemployment Insurance Program

Working with people who want to work.

Employment and Immigration Canada
Bud Cullen, Minister

To make your Unemployment Insurance Program more responsive to the special needs of different areas of Canada, there are now 48 economic regions for UI. (Up to now, there were 16 regions.)

With this change, UI benefits will more accurately reflect your local employment conditions.

It's all part of a plan announced over a year ago.

Each of these new 48 regions will have its own unemployment rate. This will set the length of time a claimant must have worked to become eligible for Unemployment Insurance benefits. And it will govern the length of benefits as well.

There's nothing new about the system itself—it's just being measured more finely in 48 regions, rather than 16.

The length of time a claimant must work to get UI remains the same. It varies from 10 to 14 weeks, depending on the unemployment rate where the claimant lives. And regionally-based benefits have the same maximum.

The change will only affect those whose UI claims start after November 12. This map and the information with it will show you the new economic boundaries in your area.

Clip the map and save it for reference, if you like.

Do you know what turns people off?

You probably think you do. They're mostly the things that turn you off, right? Well, see how right you are. Check the habits below you think will turn people off.

- ☐ 1. Filling up a hot tub instead of taking a shower.
- ☐ 2. Turning on the floodlights to light up the house all night.
- ☐ 3. Turning up the thermostat, then opening a window.
- ☐ 4. Leaving the TV on in one room while you eat dinner in another.
- ☐ 5. Cooking on an element too big for the pot.
- ☐ 6. Brightening up the house at dusk by turning on all the lights.
- ☐ 7. Turning the washing machine on to launder just a couple of things.
- ☐ 8. Filling the kettle up to make a single cup.

If you checked them all '1' to 8, you're right. Because waste of electricity, like anything everybody really needs, is a bad habit.

That makes all the habits above turn-offs. Which is a good reason for all of us to avoid them.

Wasting electricity turns people off.

Planning

County council should put some teeth into the development strategy, which it approved earlier this month, by making the document into an official plan for Haliburton County.

Planning decisions are vital to the future of the county. The strategy will not be as effective as it could be if it is left as a suggestion rather than as an official plan to which all municipalities in the county would be bound to adhere.

Council members moved in the right direction by undertaking the strategy last January. The main objectives of the strategy are three-fold. The first aim is the development of policies for the conservation and management of natural resources in the county. The second objective is to shift the emphasis away from the traditional consent granting approach to lot creation, towards lots in registered plans of subdivisions. The third aim is the development of policies and guidelines for new residential, recreational, commercial and industrial land uses.

A lakes study, when completed, could be incorporated into the strategy as an official plan. The study would assess the impact of existing development and future development proposals on the various bodies of water within the county.

The existing Dysart et al official plan could be incorporated into the county's official plan.

While Haliburton County has not yet been subjected to the pressure for growth and housing development that many other areas of the province have experienced, there is nevertheless a constant demand for shoreline development and for severances of lots from existing larger properties.

The development strategy predicts, growth in the county will be slow over the next 10 to 15 years with a projected population increase of 1,000 to 1,300 persons.

In the past, local planning has been the responsibility of municipal councils and the rate of turndown for subdivision applications has been more than 35 per cent. Under the development strategy, the responsibility for planning will still rest with the municipal councils, but will be contained in a county-wide strategy.

County council has been reluctant to move in the direction of an official plan, at least partly because of the traditional desire of municipal councils to retain their autonomy. And there is no question that councils across the county have acted in what they have deemed to be the best interests of their ratepayers whenever planning decisions have been made. But the fact remains that planning is too complex an area to be left up to individual councils.

A planner with the Ministry of Housing has indicated the development strategy could be made into an official plan without any major difficulties.

County council should be willing to take that extra step and push for adoption of an official plan for Haliburton County.

Legion

Members of the Royal Canadian Legion Branch 129 in Haliburton Village should be congratulated for their efforts in the construction of a new extension to the present facilities.

The addition, which was completed at a cost of $300,000, will mean better facilities for community activities.

Although the new expansion will enhance the Legion, good fortune has not always existed with the organization in past endeavours.

After its re-organization in 1944, the Legion Branch 129 located its headquarters in a brick house across from the Texaco depot, but eight years later the building was destroyed by fire.

A new building was erected in 1952 through the efforts of the members of the organization but 11 years later, after the mortgage had been paid off, fire again destroyed the structure.

The membership again pulled together and set up temporary headquarters in the abandoned Pentecostal Church until a new building was built in 1964. The mortgage on the structure was paid off in 1970.

The new structure with its expanded facilities stands as a monument to the dedication and efforts of the membership of Branch 129.

The members should be congratulated for a job well done and continued success in the future years to come.

Letters to the Editor

To The Editor:

Not since the notorious "cross-over" of MP Jack Horner, have we witnessed such a complete reversal of opinion as expressed in your editorial of November 8.

Previously, you were most concerned about the welfare of Hyland Crest residents. Now with the intense desire to monopolize all county services in the Town of Haliburton, you have completely contradicted your statements.

Anyone who has lived in Haliburton or Minden for just one winter is aware of the treacherous conditions which can exist on Highway 121. Do we wait until we have a tragedy with one of the residents dying enroute to Haliburton before rational thinking takes place?

Your statement of the "survey" taken among the residents is, of course, untrue. The Hyland Crest Residents' Council presented their own written request to the committee of management and it is an insult to these residents to say that they are not capable of such a decision.

As stated in our letter, we have two excellent doctors who operate a modern, well-equipped clinic and a hospital with highly qualified nursing staff who are entirely capable of looking after the welfare of the residents of Hyland Crest.

We feel that the medical community in Minden is now most certainly as stable as that of Haliburton.

The timing of this editorial seems strange to me, appearing just before election day with no time for rebuttal from the board of directors of Minden Red Cross.

We emphatically concur with you that the most important factor is the welfare of the citizens of the home and this is the reason for our deep concern.

Sincerely,
J. E. Burton, President,
Minden Red Cross Society

To The Editor:

The editorial 'wrong' in the current issue of your paper (November 8, 1978), regarding medical coverage of the Hyland Crest Home, following your quite logical editorial of October 25 issue, is one of the most hypocritical essays it has been my misfortune to read!

To repeat the facts; the distance between the 'Home' and the hospital in Haliburton or its doctors is 16 1/2 miles by any reasonably accurate speedometer, not 'a short time of travel'. Highway 121 to Haliburton is a 'picturesque' winding road, treacherous in winter.

The medical coverage in Minden is not only stable, but most progressive, both doctors live within a half mile of the Hyland Crest Home and

The smoke has cleared and the municipal elections in Haliburton County have finally ended for another two years. For some candidates it is a happy occasion, while others are experiencing disappointment with the results. The news staff at the paper can now relax, as far as election coverage is concerned, after a fast-paced two weeks before voting day.

Covering elections strikes both ends of the good and bad of the newspaper business. First is the excitement and the opportunity to be involved, where you receive an excellent on-the-job education about what is involved in the political process at the grass roots level. Second is the amount of work associated with the job and the attempts to keep all the huge amount of information straight.

Municipal government is the backbone of our political system. It is from the municipal level that everything begins and in most cases appears to end. One of the major tasks of the provincial government is co-ordinating the hundreds of municipalities in the province, which means giving the proper amounts of grants and seeing that most local requests are answered.

The new members of council will quickly learn it is not always an easy task getting things done for the municipality. They will find because of the way municipal governments are structured and financed, that the province has a great amount of control in the system.

They will find that not all of the residents in the community are right and in the process of decision-making by council some taxpayers will feel slighted. The newcomers should be forewarned that being part of municipal council is not just attending meetings once a month. It means many nights away from the family, hammering out details on various projects.

Being a member of council, if the job is to be done properly, means working at it full time, only with part-time hours. It means for most finishing work at 4 p.m. and turning around and starting to work for the municipality.

It means that your telephone can ring at all hours of the day or night and not all of the calls will be of a friendly manner. It means listening to the wishes of the people, but not always being swayed by them.

It means being talked about behind your back for things that were not part of your doing. It means being frustrated time and time again because what you know is right just cannot always be accomplished. It means being quoted in newspapers, sometimes not to your liking. You have suddenly become a public figure. Your words have to be chosen carefully because invariably what you say will be repeated.

Becoming a member of municipal council, as small as it may seem, is a big job. You are, in your own area, as important as any politician in Canada. You have a vote that can help shape the destiny of your neighbours, be sure to use it well and for the best benefit of the municipality. The voters have given you their support, do not let them down at anytime.

Remembrance Day was held on Saturday when we took time out to remember those who fought and died in two wars so that we can enjoy living in a country of peace and freedom. We wonder by stopping and remembering for a few minutes on November 11, is it enough. It is my opinion that we should remember them twelve months of the year. Something that really bothers me is the fact that in past years when the service is in progress at the Cenotaph we have had to put up with certain people running up and down the street with their cars and trucks disrupting the service. You would think that people would have more respect than to cause this turmoil at this particular time. Remembrance Day has always meant something special for me and I can recall while still in my youth on a certain day when I just happened to step into the Cenotaph on the main street in Haliburton and one of my young friends told me to come back out as this was sacred ground and I had no right to be in there. This is something that has always remained with me. Today the Cenotaph or Memorial Park has turned into a hang-out for those who have little or no respect and who continue to cover the grounds with litter such as pop cans, beer bottles, liquor bottles and debris of all sorts. I am, personally, opposed to anyone using this sacred ground as a drop-in centre. I can recall a few years back when Haliburton had a brass band having played in that band every November 11 when the band would lead the parade from the Legion Hall to the Cenotaph for the service. Every November 11, I can remember standing there with the veterans during this service with thoughts running through my mind when the names would be called out of all the local men who had laid down their lives for their country. Some of them I had grown up with and knew well, while others I did not. I can also remember when my father and I operated a pool room in Haliburton and of how many of the men came in for a last game of pool and say goodbye before going overseas. I have always had great admiration for the veterans who fought for this country and the beautiful Legion Hall we now have in Haliburton is a memorial to them. In the past we have to admit, that we have not given the local Legion branch the coverage they so rightly deserve but in the future we intend to do something about this. The Legion are to be congratulated on the wonderful service work they are doing in Haliburton County.

My good friend, Wes Baker, of Haliburton, who is a great hockey fan, was in the office the other day and dropped me off a Haliburton Huskies hockey programme which was put out in 1952 when the Huskies were in the Ontario Rural Hockey Association. Jack Austin who now resides in Minden was the manager of the team at that time and in looking over the lineups for the games against Sutton, the Huskies looked like this. In goal was Al Blanchard, on defence Joe Iles, Grant Robertson and Mark Scheffee, the forwards were Buck Baker, Lt. Marshall who was with the Salvation Army here at that time, Bud Dart, Ken Carnochan, Herb Baker, Mark Schell, Harry Brohm, Murray Austin, Jim Henry, Boyd Robertson and Stuart Baker. The Huskies at that time were in a league with Port Perry, Little Britain, Cobocok, Cannington, Woodville and Keswick.

While attending some of the Meet the Candidates meetings prior to Monday's municipal elections and reading over the candidates platforms, the thought came to me that no one seemed to have anything to say about the young people. They are the future citizens of tomorrow and although we have the facilities now in Haliburton County to accommodate many activities they could participate in, we don't seem to have the leadership or organization to keep the young people occupied and off the streets. I would only be too happy to hear your comments on this subject.

It is my hope and I think the hope of many that some day the time will come when Haliburton and Minden will live in perfect harmony. At this stage of the game a person would have to be a real optimist to think that this is going to all come about tomorrow. It isn't. Instead of bringing ourselves closer together, the division seems to be widening. This petty bickering and jealousy didn't just start yesterday, it's been going on for years. This all began years ago when five per cent of the people from both villages decided they didn't like each other and it has carried right up through until the present day. We have pulled together before, so why can't we do it again. I like to recall the time when Haliburton County has a brass band made of mostly musicians from Haliburton and Minden. The leader of the band was Charles Brandon of Minden. We worked along in a spirit of co-operation and I can remember on one occasion when all the bands from many centres were asked to play in a giant parade to open the Lindsay Central Exhibition. Our band, along with 40 other bands, started the parade at the one end of Kent Street in Lindsay, and paraded to the Exhibition grounds. As we paraded and played going up Kent Street on this particular evening, the thought came to my mind that here we were, Haliburton and Minden, marching along together. We pulled along as one unit with the band, why can't we do it in everything else.

Mr. Gordon Sharpless, an employee of the Haliburton County Board of Education, will be the guest speaker when the Brotherhood of Anglican Churchmen hold their monthly communion and breakfast at St. George's Anglican Church at Haliburton this coming Sunday morning, November 19 at 8 a.m.

The hunting season is over for another year and many report that they had very good success. Moose seemed to be very plentiful and a report reaching us stated that one hunting party spotted seven moose in one group.

Election Interest High

As this column is being written, it is election day here in the Highlands, and if the interest shown over the past number of weeks is any indication, the turn out at the polls should be quite high. This is a welcome change from two years ago when there appeared to be a high degree of apathy throughout the county. Not only has there been more interest shown by the electorate, but also more interest shown in running for the available positions, which is a healthy sign of concern for the well being of our community.

It has long been a criticism of government that governments are not run in a business-like manner. The Ontario Chamber of Commerce contends that more business people must be encouraged to run for public office in order to create a more business-like attitude in government affairs.

Now that we have, as of today, elected the people we wish to serve us, we would do well to remember for the next two years, why we did so. We elected them to represent us on the board on a municipality concerned, and in order to represent us diligently we must provide them with input. Councils and the school boards when making decisions are convinced they are doing so in your best interests. If this is not the case, we must assume to make our interests known to them prior to the decision being made.

Now we've elected them, let's make sure we keep them informed.

Snowmobile Association move in

Once again Ken Fielding has been retained by the Haliburton County Snowmobile Association as a full-time manager for the coming winter. As we did last year, the chamber has made office facilities available to the Snowmobile Association and we therefore invite you to drop in and see Ken about snowmobile business at our welcome centre on Highway 35 at Minden.

The Snowmobile Vacation Guide printed by Bombardier has just been published and a copy has been mailed to this office. The magazine, with a circulation of over 300,000 has a full two-page article on the Highlands of Haliburton. We are, incidentally, the only Ontario resort area featured in their book.

Tartan Sold Out

Some years ago, an enthusiastic group of directors from the Chamber of Commerce undertook to have a Haliburton Highlands tartan designed and registered and made available to the public. The attractive tartan has been widely used by not only individuals but the Haliburton Legion, Cubs and Boys Scouts, majorettes and Kinsmen. Up until recently, the Chamber has been able to keep an inventory of this tartan available for those who wish to use it, but we are now sold out.

The tartan is loomed in Scotland and they require a minimum order of 3 bolts at about $600 a bolt with a delivery date of from three to five months. The Chamber does not have almost $2,000 in funds available to invest in an inventory of tartan. The directors indicated almost a year ago that if commitments could be obtained for two bolts of tartan, the Chamber would carry the third bolt in stock. To date, no commitments have been received for any material and therefore none is on order.

It is a matter of some considerable concern to the chamber that the tartan is not presently available and we would be pleased to hear from anyone who has any ideas on how we might correct this situation.

Busy November

November may be a slow month for business here in the highlands but it certainly is not lacking for things to do. Don't forget that crime prevention seminar tonight (Wednesday) at the PineStone Inn. The PineStone has opened its dining room an hour early to accommodate those who wish to make use of their facilities prior to the 6:30 starting time of the seminar.

Board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce have their directors meeting scheduled for Thursday, November 16.

Merchants and businessmen from Haliburton Village will be meeting at the senior elementary school on Wednesday, November 22 to discuss the formation of an association and the possibility of designating a business improvement area for the village.

The Guild of Fine Arts Century Celebrations starts on Friday, November 24 with their dance and buffet at the Legion, their exhibition and sale at the Ol' Barn, and their Railroad Display at the Glebe Park Museum.

If this column appears in your favourite community newspaper two days or two weeks or two months after Remembrance Day, don't blame me. Blame the post office. As I write, the most arrogant, obnoxious union in Canada is at it again.

In fairness, the posties have their grievances. But they are so intransigent that they have lost any vestige they might have retained, of public support, after so many strikes in so few years. And their erstwhile leader, Monsieur Parrott, was full of crap when he declared there was union solidarity. Even as he said it, hundreds of small-town post office staffs had either not gone out at all, or were back to work, obeying the law.

However, that has little to do with Remembrance Day, 1978. Unless it happens to strike a responsive chord in all those veterans who went to war thinking they were fighting for freedom not anarchy.

A couple of years ago, I thought I had foresworn writing columns about Remembrance Day. I thought I'd said everything I could about it: the memories, the lump in the throat as The Last Post was played in the chill November air; the swapping of enormous lies at the Legion Hall after the parade.

But this year, I was a bit miffed when a zealous Zone Commander down in the Brockville area accused me in the press of "knocking" the Canadian Legion, just because I did not genuflect every time the name came up. I retorted, also in the press, that it was rather odd that a chap who was invited on an average of twice a year to address Legion branches, should be so accused.

Well, it all caught up with me. This year, in a weak moment and harassed by two old buddies who were well into the grape, I agreed to guest speak at the first Legion branch I ever joined, on Remembrance Day.

My wife wasn't that hilarious about the idea. She recalled a few instances when I had been up to no particular good with that particular branch. Like the night I got home at 4 a.m. after a turkey raffle, tottered up the stairs, called, "Look what I brought you, sweetie," and flung a thirty-pound turkey, neck, legs and all onto the bed beside her. Which promptly collapsed, leaving her on the floor in the embrace of a very cold, very dead Turk.

As I recall, we dined not on hot turkey, but hot tongue and cold shoulder, next day.

Or the time I brought home four Indian guys, good legionsaires all, insisted that they'd made me an honorary chief, and tried to explain to her why we had to put them up for the night.

Or the time I went off to a one-day zone rally with a neighbour, a Great War vet, a charter member of the Legion, and a respectable citizen. And we arrived home two days later looking like skeletons and acting like a couple of veterans from the Boer War.

But that's not, of course, the kind of thing I can use in my speech. No, I'll have to talk about comradeship, the flag, the Queen, the fallen, throwing the torch, the many scholarships the Legion provides, the lovely dinner prepared by the Ladies Auxiliary and all that jazz. Lest we forget.

What I'd really like to do is discuss topics closer to the hearts of the average legionnaire: what you could get for a pack of smokes in Antwerp in 1944; how come a colleague of mine, who fought with Rommel in North Africa, gets a bigger war pension from the German government than I

Report from Queens Park

by MPP John Ekins

There has been considerable debate on the subject of a bill which would restrict Quebec employees from working in Ontario. Speaking in that debate, Albert Roy, Ottawa East MLA, pointed out that a Quebec regulation restricting Ontario construction employees from holding jobs in Quebec is creating a border along the Ottawa River where none used to exist. "It is with sadness in fact that we have to support this legislation in principle," he stated. He condemned the Quebec government for creating, by the legislation, a barrier to free access to employment opportunities for Ontario citizens. The Minister of Labour, in the debate, stated "It is no secret that Ontario's concern has been prompted by what this government regards as unfair and discriminatory features of Quebec's regulation". This legislation was originally introduced last June, and at that time, Ontario urged the federal government to challenge the constitutionality of the Quebec rule in the Supreme Court. No such action has been taken by the federal government and negotiations between Ontario and Quebec have proved in vain. "Accordingly, we have no alternative but to proceed with the legislation", said the minister.

The bill empowers the minister to designate certain areas of the province for preferential hiring practices. Possibly Ottawa could be designated as an area where construction workers must be Ontario residents.

can provide 24-hour medical coverage.

The Minden Hospital is immediately adjacent to a main highway, number 35, whereas the Haliburton Hospital is 15 miles from it.

Therefore, it is only logical for the 'Home' to have its medical coverage based on the Minden doctors.

There is no doubt that the patients of the Hyland Crest Home are alleged to be allowed the doctor of their choice, however, in practise this does not appear to be encouraged. The fact that the house physician comes from Haliburton, has an overriding influence.

It is about time that your paper gave the patients of the Hyland Crest Home realistic consideration other than for parochial reasons.

Sincerely,
Glynn Lewis

Frictions Reduced
Last week I had the pleasure of attending and participating in the Natural Resources Symposium on Land at the Sir Sandford Fleming College's Frost Campus in Lindsay. During the two days, many important issues and concerns were expressed by speakers assembled from all parts of Canada. For me, it was an enlightening experience.

The chief concern seemed to be the encroachment of industry and urban sprawl, with their attendant aggregate needs, on prime agricultural lands, particularly in southern Ontario and the Niagara fruit belt. The need for sound planning and control of future development was strongly expressed.

I was pleased, and a little amazed, at the lack of concern for the encroachment of recreational pursuits such as snowmobiling and motorcycling on Canada's land mass. The calamity howlers of a few years ago simply weren't there. There was no need whatsoever for me to rise to our defence. In private conversations with other delegates, I couldn't get an argument out of anyone.

This says something for snowmobiler organization. The combined efforts of concerned snowmobilers, from the club level up to the International Snowmobile Industry Association, have resulted in an almost total removal of the frictions between snowmobilers and the general public. Here is how it was done.

Some years ago the industry, recognizing that it had produced a noisily objectionable machine, imposed upon itself some very strict sound reduction controls. The noise of a snowmobile was produced in many ways. The two-cycle engine has a loud exhaust. Its cooling fins create a high-frequency vibration which can become a veritable scream at top operating speeds. Its carburetor is noisy, as are its many moving parts. In combination these noises created an extremely irritating sound at a level well above the acceptable level for human ears. We might compare it with an automobile engine running at high speed with the hood raised.

Essentially, what the industry has done is close the hood. Along with improved exhaust systems came better silencers on carburetors and shrouding of moving parts. Cooling fins were boxed in on most engines and fans installed for positive air circulation. Closer fitting hoods were designed which allow fewer openings for sound to escape. The overall result is a 94 per cent reduction from the sound of some pre-1969 models!

But what have snowmobilers themselves done? A great deal, I think. We have recognized the friction areas and through a systematic program of education and development, have placed a new generation of respectable snowmobilers on trails designed and located for minimal public irritation. We are still out there - in greater numbers than ever before - but we have made ourselves much less conspicuous. The result of this club effort is public acceptance.

Having achieved public acceptance the organizations of snowmobilers - again from the club level on up - can turn their energies towards development of the recreation as a profitable branch of the tourist industry. Much progress has already been made in that direction, particularly in Bruce Peninsula, Huronia, Muskoka, and to some extent here in Haliburton. But much more can be done.

What is needed now, in my view, is a cooperative effort on the part of local tourist operators and tourist associations, along with local snowmobile clubs and associations, to further develop and promote high quality trails and accommodations facilities along those trails. Trail development is progressing at a good rate and trail quality is improving. The time is ripe, I think, for greatly stepped up promotion.

There was a time, in the past, when we tended to put the cart before the horse. The first trail maps of Haliburton County - and they were excellent maps - were produced and distributed long before our trail system had been developed to a standard acceptable to visiting snowmobilers. They came, were disappointed, and went on to better trails elsewhere. It was, to put it bluntly, promotion of an inferior product. The situation has since changed. We can now advertise a product that we can justifiably take pride in.

With quiet machines, with public acceptance, with greatly improved facilities, the recreation can only go forward.

Floor hockey games have been held after school on Mondays and Tuesdays at the Haliburton Senior Elementary School in preparation for the big tournament coming up this weekend. Teams from Lakefield, Beaverton, Peterborough and Battle Creek, Michigan are expected to show up.

Floor hockey tourney comes to Haliburton

The excitement of floor hockey has come to Haliburton Highlands Senior Elementary School.

Inter-school hockey between students in Grades five to eight will be played on Monday and Tuesday Afternoons. Eight teams with 10 students on each team will compete.

League will be played on November 24, and will kick off an international floor hockey tournament to be hosted by the school. Eight teams including two local teams will take to the floor beginning on the Saturday. Games will be played from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. and on Sunday, games will extend from 9 a.m. to 11 p.m.

This year at the tournament, two Peterborough teams are entering along with a Lakefield team, a Beaverton team and two teams from Battle Creek, Michigan. The Haliburton squad has travelled to Michigan before to compete against that team, and past match-ups have proven to be exciting, explained organizer Dennis Baker.

"Ontario is the only place anyone plays floor hockey, except in Sweden and the United States," he said, "and it is spreading across Canada." "It's the best floor hockey you'll see," he added.

The hockey tournament is being sponsored partially by the Lake Kashagawigamog Tourist Association.

Organizers of the tournament are still trying to find accommodation for the out-of-town players. Anyone who can furnish accommodation for these people for Friday and Saturday evening, call Dennis Baker at 457-2875. Call after 5 p.m.

Huskies defeated after fourth game

By Joe Banks Staff Writer

It was the Bancroft Jets that became the hunted and hunters this past weekend as they dumped the Haliburton Huskies to give them their first loss of the season on Sunday.

The hometown Bancroft team struck first Friday night when they scored early at the 46-second mark. They increased their lead with a second at 6:24.

Undaunted by Bancroft's early start, Haliburton scored at the latter part of the period after captain Barry Shaw came up with his first of the season. The goal was assisted by defenceman Mike Iles.

The score was tied when, at the 17:23 mark, leftwinger Dwight Sisson scored assisted by rightwinger Chris Hodgson and centre Andy Salvatori.

Bancroft incurred six penalties during the period to Haliburton's four.

In the second period, Haliburton's Hodgson and Bancroft's Greg Raine dropped gloves and tested each other's physical capabilities at the three-minute mark. Both men incurred five-minute penalties.

Bancroft came up with another goal at the 3:22 mark. Haliburton answered when Steve Davies put the puck in the net, assisted by Randy Barras.

But Bancroft reciprocated at 14:16 and again at 16:39. The quick goals tied the game at this point at 5-5.

Fists became evident in the period when Barras and Tim Crosby of Bancroft were sent to the penalty box for fighting. The two had just been off for roughing penalties seconds before the scuffle broke out.

Davies got his second of the game when he scored going into the third period. The goal came at the 3:15 mark, with Barras assisting.

At 5:45, Joe Roberts cut loose and put one in assisted by Barras and Davies. Bancroft answered at 10:36 with their own goal.

The great moment of the game for Davies came at the 15:58 mark when he scored for a hat-trick. Barras and defenceman Kevin O'Hara assisted.

Bancroft's fate was sealed when, at 16:51 Chris Hodgson put the lid on the game by scoring with defenceman Steve Farnsworth and Dwight Sisson assisting. Bancroft received three penalties throughout the period to Haliburton's five. Craig Wood was the winning net-minder while Alistar McCrae took the loss. The final score was 10 to 6 for Haliburton.

In game two last weekend, Bancroft came to Haliburton to try and get Friday's game back.

"We should've won that game," said a disappointed team manager Don Lloyd after the game.

A good crowd showed up at the arena on Sunday to watch the match. The cheering was to no avail, as Haliburton let Bancroft off the ropes and ended up with their first defeat of the season.

The second game was like a repeat of the first, with Bancroft scoring two goals in the first period at 5:44 and 15:04 to take a quick, two-goal lead. But it was centre Dave Levely who came up with the first point for Haliburton at the 19-minute mark. Centre, Tim Bain, and leftwinger, Ed Roberts, helped out on the goal.

Penalties numbered three for Bancroft and four for Haliburton in the period.

With the advent of period two, Levely scored his second of the game from centre Bain. Bancroft retrieved the goal at 8:25 and again at 9:49 on a power play after Kevin O'Hara got the gate for slashing. Penalties for Haliburton were heavy in the period. They received seven to Bancroft's four.

The third period saw Joe Roberts wind up in the penalty box with a series of infractions. He received two two-minute minor penalties along with a 10-minute misconduct, costing Haliburton a valuable player for much of the period.

The shots weren't getting any slower for Haliburton Huskies' goalie Craig Wood, in Sunday's game against Bancroft. Bancroft went on to win the game 6 to 5.

OMHA Haliburton bantams open season with a win and a loss

The Haliburton (Ontario Minor Hockey Association) Bantam team opened their 1978-79 season with a big win over the visiting Manvers Bantams on November 7.

Haliburton opened the scoring midway through the first period when Scott Rae hit the net on a play from Dave Nicholls. Manvers scored to end the first period at 1-1.

The second period belonged to Haliburton as the line of Nicholls, Rae and Vuksic worked well together. Each player was rewarded with a goal before Manvers answered to end the period.

Rae scored twice in the third period; once from Dave Nicholls and another from Scott Mitchell to dominate the game, and settle the score at 6-2 for Haliburton. Excellent goaltending by Jamie Bennett and Tim Deremo contributed to this fine start. Bantams play at home Tuesday at 8:30 p.m.

Oakwood answered twice to end the game for a 5-1 victory. Brian Anderson for Oakwood was their big gun picking up four points while Rae has six points in two games for Haliburton. Nicholls has five points.

News from Extendicare

by Dr. W. O. Anderson

Mrs. Halda Dean had a visit from her son, Fred, and his wife, Sadie, Monday evening. The children manage to visit their mother, twice weekly but we do not always report. Sorry Halda for the oversight.

It was interesting to us to find that one of our nurses aids, Miss Anita Dillon, was formerly one of the flag persons on Highway 35 while it was being upgraded north and south of Minden. The worst feature of that work, she said, were the long hours. Her work here is quite agreeable.

We banked our rose bushes this year, instead of enclosing them in plastic garbage bags, which we did last year. Although all the bushes survived last winter, the answers to our enquiries seem to try to discourage us from using the bags.

Tuesday afternoon was our bingo period. Helping were Mrs. Kel Andison, Mrs. Betty Wise, Mrs. Dorothy Davidson, Mrs. Dorothy Iles and Miss Karen Henderson. Jake Gill was calling as usual. Everyone enjoyed it.

We are inclined to note the remarkable devotion that Gordon Griffin shows his wife Vera, one of our residents. Not many days go by without Gordon paying his routine visits.

We are interested in a dictionary. A very interesting choice is the relatively new "Gage Canadian Dictionary" in hard cover. Such a book if well written, edited and authenticated, would be a prize to own. Another book that seems to be entering prominence is "The Farmers' Almanac". Strangely, these two books are on opposite ends of the learning spectrum.

Two interesting visitors of Mrs. Flossie Burk's, one of our lady residents, came all the way from Peterborough to see her. Daughter, Mrs. Mary Harrison, and granddaughter, Miss Heather Harrison visited her. Mrs. Burk has six grandsons, four granddaughters and four great grandsons.

Wednesday afternoon Jim Cooper of Beech Lake brought the slides that were taken of our thousand islands and Upper Canada Village trip. The photos were very good and served to remind us of the good time we had. They even showed the skwed tent we managed to sleep in.

Another interesting visitor, Murray McGuire of McGuire Tires in Haliburton, who makes frequent visits with his aunt, Mrs. Hazel Welch, one of our lady residents. We cannot get all the visitors in a week but we try to mention a few.

Mrs. Pearl Simmonds and a niece, Miss Mary Graham, both of Irondale, paid another visit to Mrs. Lila Simmonds and on arrival sat down with Jake Gill to a game of euchre.

Some house cleaning was done in this activity room and now things are so tidy that we only have to think, say, of checkers and everything is ready to sit down and play. It is all laid out.

Rev. Trevor Denny of St. George's Anglican Church was our spiritual leader for our devotional period Friday morning. His wife, Joy, and infant daughter, Kara, accompanied him. Our pianist was Mrs. Flossie Burk. Two minutes silence was observed out of respect for our war dead. It is amazing to think that the Nazis were determined to enslave the world and we were determined they wouldn't. The theme of our service "greater love hath no man than that he give his life for those who love him", as the Lord loves us, so must we love our neighbours. It was a very impressive service, and afterward over tea, coffee and cookies, we all had a nice chat.

We were glad to see Betty Anne Plewman who came to see her mother and dad, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Plewman, Friday afternoon. They are both reasonably well.

There were four movies Friday. The first was about our forest heritage showing up the beauty and its contribution to our welfare. It was quite interesting. Roughnecks, the name given to the crews of oil well drillers, was the second. It is surely a very strenuous job handling the clamps and drill pipe. Magic molecules depicted the use of molecules in building and processing the many plastics in use today was the third film. The story of light was told in the last film in sort of cartoon form displayed more levity than seemed warranted.

Harold Sawyer and his niece, Mrs. Kathleen Barnes were here Saturday. Harold

GRADUATION

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne B. Wood of Haliburton are pleased to announce the graduation of their daughter, Wendy Lorayne, from the Toronto Western Hospital campus of George Brown College in August, 1978. Wendy has received her registration from the College of Nurses and has accepted a position on the nursing staff of Toronto Western Hospital.

Charles Fader of Maple Lake celebrates his 99th birthday today. It was on November 15, 1889 he was born in Winchester and now, 99 years later, he celebrates that date with two granddaughters, two great granddaughters, one great grandson and three great, great granddaughters. Here, fifth generation great grandson, Jerry Griffin, shares a moment with great grandpa.

Lindsay Presbyterial U.C.W. hold meeting at Norland

by Loretta Zufelt

The Lindsay Presbyterial Executive of United Church Women met on October 30 at Norland United Church. The president, Mrs. Margaret Stewart, opened the meeting with thoughts on "The Person Next to You". A very meaningful devotional period was conducted by Mrs. Joyce Bartley, using "Ballad of the U.C.W."

Announcement was made of the Presbyterial Annual at Queen Street United Church, Lindsay on March 15, 1979. A panel of Rev. Harold Wilson, Messrs. Dave Parrot and Dick Gorrell, with Mrs. Helen Ruth as Moderator, will present the theme, "The Year of the Child".

Mrs. Margaret Hewie reported on her attendance at the meeting of the Ontario Council of Women in Hamilton in July. Two main topics under discussion were "Schooling of the Hearing-Impaired Child" and "Values Education". On behalf of the Task Force on Alcohol and Drug Abuse she reminded everyone of the Cable TV presentation from Lindsay on November 7. She also urged support of Mr. Frank Drea in his stand re "topless waitresses".

Mrs. Leola English reported on the Bursary Fund and asked that we increase our donations by 25 per cent if at all possible. Already plans are under way for the 1979 Schools for U.C.W. The weekend one will be held at Camp Quin-Mo-Lac, September 7 - 9 and a mid-week school, September 18 - 20 in the Peterborough area. Mrs. Brandsma announced that the theme is "Go quickly and Tell".

Following lunch Mrs. Barbara Maunder introduced a special speaker for this occasion, Mr. Walter Hall. He is the Assistant Superintendent at the Kawartha Lakes School at Lindsay and has been in this type of work for 33 years, much of the time at Bowmanville. Although the Kawartha Lakes School was originally for girls, it is now co-educational and at present there are 37 young people there. They are admitted through Juvenile Court and range in age from 12 - 16 years but may remain until the age of 18, if this is deemed wise. The average length of stay is six months and they attend classes up to Grade 8. There are 8 teachers on staff. High school students attend classes in Lindsay. The staff also includes two full-time social workers and two part-time psychiatrists. Mrs. Maunder sincerely thanked Mr. Hall for his informative talk and willingness to answer questions. She urged that we take advantage of Mr. Hall's invitation for groups or individuals to make an appointment and visit the school.

The date for the next meeting was set for February 19 at Bobbysgon United Church and an invitation to hold the June meeting at Haliburton was received.

Guild of Fine Arts News

by Carole McLean

On October 4, as a guest of Kinsmen, I accompanied my husband to a presidential conference held in Brighton, Ontario. As there were meetings most of the day for the men, a special bus tour to the Proctor House was arranged for the visiting wives. The Proctor House, which overlooks the town of Brighton, was the home of John E. Proctor, a Great Lakes shipping tycoon. Much of the land, in and around Brighton was owned by him. A colourful history is attached to the house and its owner. Legend has it that one unfortunate Brightonian was indebted to the man, (as most were in the form of personal loans, as buyers or as tenants), and before the bill was paid, fell ill and was on his death bed.

It seems that in those times if a person died leaving debts, his body could be seized by the mortgage holder and sold to medical science to help defray the balance of the loan.

The legend states that Mr. Proctor approached this man and informed him if he did not pay up forthwith, he would not require a plot in which to lay his body.

With this bit of news the dying man told Proctor that he couldn't pay and that if he seized his corpse upon his expiration, he would haunt Mr. Proctor to his dying day.

True to his prophecy, it is said the wealthy shipping magnate was miserable for the rest of his life and spent many sleepless nights pacing by the windows at the top of the mansion. Many respected Brightonians claimed to have seen a ball of fire rise from the grave yard to the east of Highway 30 and make its way over and down into Proctor House.

Years have passed since the phenomena was last seen and since the last Proctor resided there. The house is now in the hands of the Brighton Historical Society, which have made great headway in restoring and refurbishing it to its former beauty. The top floor has been turned into a museum and gallery of that era containing hand woven linens with tatted lace edges, woven bedspreads of a double weave M's and O's design. One was a black and white hand spun wool and the other black and white cotton and linen, both appeared to have been woven on a 36-inch loom as they contained centre seams. Of the two, the cotton and linen bedspread seemed to have withstood the test of time, as it hardly appeared worn at all.

Amongst the old beaded dresses and beaded jet handbags were sterling shoe button hooks and other memorabilia of that era. But what I really found interesting wasn't to be found here, but tucked away in the basement, stored in cardboard boxes and sealed in plastic bags. I was told that over the summer a group of archaeology students had digs in the back yard of the Proctor House with the intent of discovering what each generation consumed as a daily diet and what kind of tableware was used. Each plastic bag contained bits and pieces of broken stoneware pottery, porcelain and a variety of coloured glass, ready to be assembled into whole or partial pieces that would then tell their own story. I have always enjoyed viewing antiques and the memorabilia from previous generations, but have never truly appreciated or understood what went into producing the works of art from a previous era until I started doing some of them myself. To say I enjoyed the day would be an understatement and I hope I've been able to share some part of it with you.

Wilberforce couple has been married for 65 years

A marriage problem? Don't talk to the Lewises

Don't talk to the Lewises about the marriage problems and increasing divorce rates in today's society - they've been married for 65 years.

The elderly couple celebrated their anniversary on October 29, and were greeted by many of their relatives, friends and neighbours at the open house held at the home of their son, Carl, in Wilberforce.

It was way back in 1913 that they were married in Bancroft at St. Paul's United Church. Both were born in Highland Grove, where they lived for 53 years.

It wasn't until 11 years ago did the couple move into Wilberforce.

A long string of grandchildren, great grandchildren and even great great grandchildren have resulted from the couple's union. They have six children - two daughters and four sons: Jean (Mrs. Lloyd MacDuff) of Wilberforce; Guy of Peterborough; Valera (Mrs. Ross Mumford) of Lindsay; Raymond of Harcourt; Carl and Bernie, both of Wilberforce.

Today, the family tree has sprouted still broader, and 25 grandchildren, 28 great grandchildren and 3 great great grandchildren through the family lineage.

Mrs. Evelyn Bradshaw of Belleville, who was the maid of honour at their wedding, attended the celebration. Percival Suec, who was the best man, was unable to attend.

Special greetings by telegram were received from Karen and Keith Strong of British Columbia, a telephone call from their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Westover of Toronto as well as being showered with an abundance of cards, gifts and best wishes on the occasion.

and Kathleen are quite avid horticulturalists and every year they have a nice display of plants and flowers on his property.

It was nice that Norman Silver has taken his mother, Mrs. Annie Silver, home so she could vote in her constituency on Monday and besides the outing would be good for her.

William Andrews was visited by his sons, Kenneth and Allan, daughter-in-law, Linda, granddaughters Wanda and Pamela, and grandson, Glenn. Bill was glad to see his sons and grandchildren and visit with them.

do from the Canadian; how many girls there were to the square yard in Picadilly Circus on a summer evening; how anybody who believed in democracy and equality could volunteer to serve in such a fascist outfit as the military. But no, that would never do. Now with the Ladies Auxiliary hanging around, drinking in every word. And making sure their spouses drank in nothing except words.

I'll probably have to drop in a few heroic and imaginary personal experiences, stress the importance to the boys in arms of those at home, toss off an anecdote or two about Churchill, speak in hushed and reverent tones of those who got the chop, and belabor the government for not giving veterans a pension that would put them within a stone's throw of civil service pensioners.

It's going to be tough. I am not a reverent person. I still think it will be a great day for Canada when there are only five legionnaires left in this country, all of them in their nineties, and they get together and sell the 28 million dollars of assets of the Canadian Legion, and squander the whole works on a three-week trip to Gay Paree. It will mean we haven't been in a war for fifty odd years. And it will probably mean that, after three weeks, there are no more Canadian legionnaires on the face of the earth.

But I'll do my best. I can always give the Germans a verbal thumping, and bewail the fact that after being thoroughly licked, they could buy the whole of Canada tomorrow, if they wished. That should go over.

the Guild of Fine Arts were duly impressed by the interest survey at the high school and have set the date for the courses to begin in January. The search is on, within as well as outside the guild, for artists to fill the needs of these students, especially in the drawing, oil painting and water colour department. If you would like to share your talent and be part of a worthwhile undertaking, please call Donna Monk at 286-2036. It will be a rich and rewarding experience for all parties concerned.

Pottery Group
On Monday, the pottery group met at the School of Fine Arts and began producing the 400 pins and 100 pendants to be made available at the buffet and dance in commemoration of the 100 years since the first train arrived in Haliburton. This is quite an undertaking for the pottery group as time is short and we thank them for their constant support and help in all areas of the guild's endeavours.

The guild's history will continue next week.

Letter To The Editor

To The Editor:

You ought to be ashamed! Your editorial of November 8 titled 'Wrong' concerning the Hyland Crest medical situation indicates a definite deficiency in logic. You begin your article by saying you 'wrongly based an editorial in the October 25 issue on a letter from James Burton' as if there was no cause for you to base your article on such a letter. Now you say that new information has come to light. You then proceed to deny what you have said before without telling your unfortunate readers one single piece of new information.

You talk of the hazards of winter travel to Haliburton and then dismiss it as 'a short time of travel'. Even if the drivers of the ambulance were to surpass the speed limit (which they are forbidden to do), the trip would still take at least 15 minutes. I ask your readers, would you be pleased to ride for 15 minutes over icy roads in the midst of a cardiac arrest or a stoppage of breathing.

Then, dear editor, you come swinging in with what you are sure is the cruncher, telling us that the medical situation in Minden has not yet stabilized. My information is that you have not even interviewed the Minden doctors to determine the degree of stability. Those of us in the community of Minden who have been privileged to be under the care of these two highly qualified and experienced physicians can readily vouch for their high degree of concern for the welfare of all the residents of their community.

I suggest that before you bemoan the possible breakdown of the unity of the county over this issue, you ought to be concerned for the welfare of those people who live in the county, including our residents at Hyland Crest.

Sincerely,
The Reverend David G. Barker
Minden, Ontario.

Chatting with Irene

by Irene Moore

Here we are ready now to think of Christmas as the next holiday. My, how time flies! Remembrance Day I watched the service on TV. That is one program I see every year, as so many of us do. I also remember and also pray that we never have another war, that our young folk never go through what the young men of my generation went through. Some came back, some didn't, but we have not forgotten. When I went to school, but had a service at school which left a more lasting impression on our minds.

Etta Brintnell of Lindsay spent a few days with the Richard Kirkwoods recently. With hunting season over the men are all home, some got the spoils of the hunt, some didn't, but all are rehashing last week for those of us who stayed home. Two of our neighbours got a deer, Bill Porter's weighed about 128 pounds dressed and Bud Stamps was 153 pounds. Many did not even see any, but as was said before they all had a good week, away from it all.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cowan were in Toronto for a few days last week.

For those of you who watched the Miss Canada Pageant last Monday evening, a friend of Kirk Hewitt's was in it. She was Miss Sturgeon Falls.

Jeanne Sears attended the Women's Institute Area Convention in Toronto last week, as the representative from the Minden branch.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Freeman of Kitchener spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. John Purc and family.

The Hugh Austens were pleased to have son, Harry, home for the hunt, as this may be the last time Harry is home for a while. He leaves for Israel later this month. Mrs. Harry Austen and family came up from Bolton for the weekend. Harry has been stationed at Canadian Forces Base Borden for the past while.

Mrs. Rozanne Hynard is the UNICEF representative for Haliburton County and has the brochures for their Christmas Cards, which she will be very glad to show you if you phone her at 286-1071.

Mrs. Laura Kirkwood was the representative from Haliburton County on the Public Institution Inspection Panel on November 1, 2 and 3. They inspected the Kawartha Lakes Training School, Ross Memorial Hospital, Lindsay County Jail, Victoria Manor, Hyland Crest Home and Extensicare.

Verna Jarvis and Marg Miller spent Saturday with the Hickeyes at Powassan and brought Laurie home with them for a short visit.

Winner of the Figure Skating Club basket of groceries was Lomas Henderson and the winner of the Afghan was Jean Bowron.

Mrs. Tom Corbett and children of Ignace spent some time with Mike and Charlotte O'Neill recently.

Loyne and Evelyn Cox came up from Ajax to visit over the weekend with their families.

The Brownies are very happy over the response to their drive for UNICEF on October 31 and wish to thank all who gave when they showed their boxes.

Christmas is drawing close.

er so be sure and mark these dates on your calendar. November 17 at the United Church from 11:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. is the U.C.W. Christmas luncheon, bazaar and bake sale. This is the eighth year for this type of luncheon. I'm sure you will find a gift for that person you want to remember, but if it isn't there, try the Hyland Crest Christmas Tea and Bazaar on Wednesday, November 22. You still have lots of time. You didn't fine it! Cheer up for there is still the St. Paul's A.C.W. Christmas Bazaar coming up on December 2. With all those dates you will surely find what you want!

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Fletcher are having a holiday in Mexico.

Mrs. Edith Welch had a visit on Saturday with Don and Enid Walker, a friend and Mrs. Helen Buttmore all from Peterborough.

Have a left handed dictionary beside me, I bought it one time and have had many laughs reading the double barrelled definitions in it. Here is one on the word, Hockey "Mayhem on Ice" how true that is, but it should also read "In the stands".

Mr. and Mrs. Larry McKenzie of Toronto were in town on the weekend.

Winners of the Mini Card Party last week were: bridge, Agnes Taylor; cribbage, Joyce Hewitt and Ethel Leigh; euchre, Pearl Cowen

Carnarvon News

by Yvonne Penney

Monday morning, November 6, dawned and shots rang out around Carnarvon. Alvin Misco bagged himself a moose. Apparently, an OPP Constable shot a moose on the Vankoughnet Road. I spoke to some hunters on the Old Bobcaygeon Road and they said the gang next to them had 13 deer and they had none.

Bernice Gillies and Suzanne and Yvonne Penney attended a quiet family wedding Monday evening in Haliburton. Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Brad Abbs, the former Denise Warren. Best wishes for a long and happy married life.

A Mother's Auxiliary for Brownies and Guides is in the process of being formed. Several mothers and interested parents have agreed to take positions on the executive. We will be endeavouring to raise a little money to start a camp fund and we would ask for your support in this venture. After all, these girls are the future generation in Carnarvon and as such deserve all our support.

Saturday, November 11, dawned a rather grey day. Perhaps the good Lord is reminding us to remember all those who died so we can live as we do in these affluent but sometimes scary times. Many children of this generation are not aware of the significance of the "poppy".

Only six weeks until Christmas. For your Christmas shopping, remember two very important dates. Our senior citizens at Hyland Crest are having their bazaar and tea on November 22, and the senior citizens of Haliburton are having their bazaar on Saturday, November 25. Please plan to attend and support these people.

Municipal elections will be all over by the time this is printed and the winners will have been congratulated but the ones who didn't succeed are to be congratulated too. After all, these people gave of their time and you can't have a race without candidates. Congratulations to all the losers. See you at the polls in two years.

There were 145 votes cast at the Advance Poll held in the municipal office in Minden on Saturday, November 11, 1978.

Glad to report that Carl Doey and Peg Whitney returned home from Peterborough Civic Hospital on Saturday.

Sorry to report the loss of one of our young people on Saturday night at Sick Children's Hospital in Toronto. Dianne Barjarow will certainly be missed by all her many friends.

Wilberforce News

by Winnie Schofield

Saturday, November 4 proved to be a busy day for Wilberforce. The fine weather was encouraging to the poppy sellers who very early were at work. Members of Wilberforce Legion Branch 624, canvassed the area and found people eager to purchase the familiar scarlet symbols. Cheerful helpers were recruited from the Girl Guides. They provided much of the necessary leg work and were later rewarded with luncheon at the Legion Hall.

Meanwhile the advance poll for the upcoming election was being held at the Lloyd Watson Memorial Centre. A very good attendance was recorded.

This was the day for the annual senior citizens bazaar and bake sale. A large crowd assembled to examine and purchase goods and the bake table was soon sold out along with various Christmas articles, embroidery items and hand knitted goods. All kinds of interesting things were on display such as potted plants, home grown vegetables, touch and take table.

There were raffles such as the hooked rug, which was won by Harold Sanderson, of Scarborough and two dolls that went to Jim Ross, while the lucky winners of three baskets of groceries were Shirley Finlay, Ida Holmes and Sally Mather. Tea and light refreshments were served by members of the UCW with the proceeds going to the senior citizens club. Our busy Girl Guides were busy helping again by serving the tables. The members of the Senior Citizens Club were happy with such good response from the public. As a reward for their hard work, they took a bus trip to the Royal Winter Fair on November 10.

On Sunday, November 5, members from the Legion attended church service at St. Margaret's Anglican Church. President, Walter Klapow, and comrade, Murray Agnew, took part in reading the lessons of the day. The Reverend Moore Smith presented the sermon.

Hunting season is over in Haliburton and Muskoka for another year. There were some deer taken in the area but they didn't seem too plentiful, however, moose seemed to be the quarry that many hunters took home. And what is more delicious than a piece of moose steak?

We are glad to be able to report that Mrs. Trix Edwards is at home again, after spending some time in Huntsville Hospital. Trix celebrated her 87th birthday on October 27.

There wasn't much vandalism on Halloween, but some children got the notion to be mischievous on the following Saturday night. One of their "pranks" was to go into the Anglican Church and throw eggs at the wall in various places, above the Altar top, above the organ and other places making quite a mess.

When children go into a church and desecrate it, the action says something about their home training or lack of it.

In last week's column, I missed the names of two other local students, who won awards on honour's night. They were Brian Mulholland and Bev Jones. Sorry kids.

Bernard Bain is home from the hospital and looks a little better.

Sherman and Mary Griffin and Cindy, Mike and Jamie of Lindsay spent the weekend at their cottage.

The reports from the hunting camps were very good. Most camps say it was the best hunt in years.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis

Coboconk Lions Club celebrated their 25th Charter anniversary on Saturday, November 4 in the newly decorated Coboconk Community Hall. About 180 invited guests sat down to a dinner, prepared and served by the ladies of the Apostolic Church. Following dinner, President Ted Garrels, welcomed the Lions and their ladies who were present from Brechin, Cannington, Claremont, Cobourg, Chemung Lake, Ajax, Maple, Omamee, Mount Albert, Kirkfield, Oak Ridges, Peterborough, Lindsay, Pickering, Newcastle, Trenton, Brighton, Norwood, Marmora, Fenelon Falls, Newmarket, Woodville, Haliburton, Norland and Coboconk. The guest speaker, Stan McBride, was introduced by past District Governor, Don Jones. Mr. McBride, who is Sheriff of Peterborough County, kept his audience both interested and amused as he shared with us his experience as a sheriff. He concluded his address by praising the community endeavours and accomplishments of the Coboconk Lions Club over the past 25 years. On behalf of the group, Lion Everett Cameron thanked Mr. McBride and presented him with a book of poems entitled, "Better than Gold". Dr. Bob Jamieson received a special plaque honouring him as a past district governor of District A-3, while Governor Earl Pike presented certificates of 25 years perfect attendance to Lions, John Rocco, Dr. Bob Jamieson, John Peel, Fred Auston and Walter Robertson. To complete this enjoyable evening, dancing followed.

Township council meeting was held on Thursday, November 8, instead of November 6, with all members present and following business was transacted. The clerk was instructed to inform Jim Gallagher of RR 1, Reabro, that his bid of $75 for the timber lying on the west quarterline of Digby was accepted. A noise control bylaw was read a first and second time and passed. Lawrence Peel was granted permission to trap on dump property. A bylaw to assume a certain road for future maintenance and construction purposes was read a first and second time and passed. James Boyce was hired as a winter employee for the roads department at $160 a week. Severance applications B-245-78, B-246-78, B-247-78 of William Hristovski, for parts of Lot 9, Concession 5, Laxton Township were approved, providing that the entrances be off the township road allowances. Severance applications B-191-78, B-192-78 of Raymond Hart for parts of Lots 13 and 14, Concession 1, Digby Township were approved along with severance application B-254-78, Barbara Peel, for part of Lot 9, Concession 5, Laxton Township. Applications for cancellation or refund of 1978 taxes, numbers 7-78, 8-78 and 9-78 were accepted. Council agreed to endorse the resolution of the united Counties of Lennox and Addington regarding the Lake Ontario Regional Library Service.

Floyd Pogue of RR 1, Norland, has been busy this past week delivering the new telephone books in this area. If you haven't received yours and would like one, there are extra books available at Norland Post Office. This November 1978 book has photographs of the four seasons of the year in Ontario on the cover. Bell Canada manager, Ken Witherden has announced that Bell is reverting to a summer directory next year. There will be a May 1979 close date for directory names with delivery of these books starting about July 1. Keep this in mind, if you are planning to move or change your telephone number.

At the women's Institute meeting on Monday, November 6, a motion was passed not to allow Sunday hall rental for any money making functions. This applies only for Sundays, not other days or evenings of the week. It was decided also, to start a building fund to be used for renovations that are needed both inside and outside the Institute Hall and any donations to this fund would be greatly appreciated by the Women's Institute members. Brian Chynoweth won the Firemen's Hockey Pool on Saturday, November 4.

I am pleased to report that the money raised for UNICEF by the Norland Public School students on Halloween was $95.02 which is increase of nearly $20 over last year. Thankyou for supporting this very worthwhile cause.

Fenelon Falls Secondary School held their annual commencement exercises on Friday, November 3. Justly proud parents, Gerry and Joyce Bartley whose son Brian was valedictorian two years ago were pleased to have their daughter, Lorie, as valedictorian this year. Lorie, Connie Brohm and Edward Weerdenburg received their Secondary School Honor Graduation diplomas and Dwight Angiers, Kathryn Batty, Joan Halliday, Marilyn Kay, Darlene Sleeman, Christopher Suckling and Marlene Weerdenburg all successfully completed four years of high school and received Secondary School Graduation diplomas. Local young people, who are members of the Honour Club in third year are Linda Bartley and Steven Brohm. Fourth year is Kathryn Batty and fifth year is Lorie Bartley and Edward Weerdenburg, both of whom were Ontario Scholars. Linda Bartley was presented with the Victoria and Grey Trust Company's Junior Secretarial Proficiency award. The Village Pharmacy third year General Proficiency prize was awarded to Steven Brohm and Kathryn Batty received the fourth year General Proficiency one given by G. and M. Gears Limited of Montreal. Our congratulations and best wishes for a job well done.

Winner of Series 1 of Norland Bowling League was the team of Lyle Jewell with 35 points. Ladies high single on November 8, was Jean Boyce with 242, high triple and average was Rotha Bryant with 565 and 186, men's high single and triple was Doug Boyce with 314 and 674 and high average was Harry Smith with 198.

Just in time for Christmas shopping, Norland's hard working Red and White owner, Peter Purcell, has opened a downstairs area in the store, where you can purchase men's, women's and children's clothing, kitchenware, books and records. This is a very nice extra that shoppers in this area will appreciate.

On Saturday, November 4 about 180 Lions and guests celebrated the silver charter anniversary of the Coboconk Lions Club in the Coby Community Hall.

After a dinner, served by the Apostolic Church ladies, past District Governor, Don Jones, introduced the guest speaker, Stan McBride, Sheriff of Peterborough.

Mr. McBride praised the club for their many, varied achievements over the past 25 years, especially the construction and maintenance of the Community Hall and park, large donations to assist the building of the new medical and dental centre and other donations to Canadian National Institute for the Blind and community programs. He remarked how much this area had changed since his last visit in 1947 "when the Coby boundary signs were just back-to-back." Mixed among his remarks were many amusing anecdotes of his life at the court house along with other rib tickling stories.

Following the remarks, a special presentation was made to Dr. Bob Jamieson, to recognize his former efforts as a Lions District Governor. Later, Dr. Jamieson and four other remaining active charter members were applauded as they received certificates and silver charter pins. They included Fred Auston, John Peel, Walter Robertson and John Rocco.

Finally by 10 p.m., the tables were cleared for a dance. Special thanks to Lion President, Ted Garrels, for doing such a fine job organizing the whole event and to Lions, Gord, Miki, Everett and Earl for rejuvenating the hall with new paint and varnish, sexy lights and a huge electric birthday cake. Last but not least, "a good time was had by all."

Ruthanne Hannivan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Hannivan, was honoured at a bridal shower in the Anglican parish hall recently. Ruthanne received many beautiful gifts and an enjoyable evening was spent with her friends who had gathered to honour her on parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fountain.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Meridith and family spent the weekend at their cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Redner have been visiting their daughter and family in Lindsay for a week. They plan to be home this weekend. Jim Fielding of Toronto spent last week with Neilson Griffin. They hunted with Charlie and Ron Sawyer. This hunting party were very lucky as they got five moose and a deer.

I haven't heard from any other hunting parties in this area how they have done but I hope they were as lucky.

By the time this column is read, we will have elected our new council for the next term. We wish them good luck.

Following the Opry show, they stayed on to see Rev. Jimmy Snow and his Grand Olde Gospel Hour and again saw Skeeter Davis sing. The weather was a nice warm 78 degrees and a good time was had by all. Christmas is fast approaching and everyone would like to find an unusual gift. THE NEW BANQUET HALL AT ROYAL CANADIAN LEGION BRANCH 129 - HALIBURTON

THE NEW KITCHEN IS IMPRESSIVE

THE MEMBERS' NEW GAMES ROOM

Legion Branch 129 Expansion

Cliff Dawson, building committee chairman, project engineer, Mike Nitsch and Branch 129 president Mel Robertson unveil the official plaques celebrating the expansion and the Legion's 50th anniversary.

The new expansion of the Legion Branch 129 stands today in defiance of its fire-plagued history.

The addition, now completed at a cost of $300,000, will mean better facilities for community groups, dances and various other functions. Feedback from people of the community has been "good," says Legion spokesman, Doug Armstrong and the building, now completed, should be utilized by an "unlimited number of groups."

Good fortune did not always exist with the organization. In 1944, the branch had re-organized and located its headquarters in a brick house across from the Texaco depot. In January 1952, the building was destroyed by fire.

Property was purchased where the present facility is located and a new building was erected in 1952. But, 11 years later, after the mortgage on the building was paid off, fire levelled the building. This time, it was worse.

The branch lost in the blaze its original charter of August 21, 1928. A large collection of unreplaceable momentos and souvenirs were also lost in the fire.

So the Legion moved into the curling rink to set up temporary headquarters before moving to the abandoned Pentecostal Church, which stood next to Branch 129. The new building was built in 1964 and paid off in 1970.

And so stands the new, expanded Legion building; unchanged by any form of disaster, but still the meeting place for veterans and citizens alike.

"We're a group of our own," said Armstrong of the Legionnaires.

"If a veteran walks into the club room, and no one even knows him, you know who they are before they even open their mouth."

The Legion members share a need for companionship with someone else who has gone through the same experience in war. Sitting, not necessarily talking, with someone who went through the same experiences, and says Armstrong, "they (the Legion members) have become a very close knit group."

And perhaps that is what the new Legion building will mean for a lot of people; sharing experiences, exchanging news and having fun.

With the spirit of the Legion will come these benefits. The organization offers free usage of the hall to such organizations such as the social planning committee, figure skating clubs, minor hockey, cubs and scouts.

And each and every one of those groups, assures Armstrong, will have the opportunity to use the facility. The hall will also be open for various groups to rent.

For Haliburton Village itself, a building has just been re-shaped. A change has occurred in the village, a change that the people like.

And, as Armstrong pointed out, "fabulous" will be the word to describe how the people enjoy that change.

We at the Echo wish to extend our congratulations and best wishes to Branch 129 of the Royal Canadian Legion in Haliburton on completion and the opening of their new banquet hall facilities. The new addition has provided a room, of which, all of Haliburton County should be justly proud.

THE HALIBURTON COUNTY ECHO

AND MINDEN RECORDER

'...the Imperial Room here in Haliburton'

Nearly 350 people showed up at the Royal Canadian Legion Branch 129 in Haliburton last Saturday night to witness the dedication and official opening of the new extension.

The event was held in conjunction with the 50th anniversary of the branch and Remembrance Day. It was also 60 years to the day that the original armistice was signed.

Following a social hour and dinner, head table guests at the occasion spoke of the new addition.

"We have the Imperial Room of the Royal York right here in Haliburton," said Dysart et al Reeve Murray Fearney.

"It couldn't happen to a more deserving group," he added.

Reg Booth, Anson, Hindon and Minden Reeve, mentioned the aspect of unity between the two municipalities.

"We're trying to build unity in this county," he stated, "and this building is a great step toward that goal."

Other speakers included Keith Tallman, Warden of Haliburton County and Monmouth Deputy Reeve, Bill Scott, MP for Victoria-Haliburton and John Eakins, MLA for Victoria-Haliburton.

Cliff Dawson, chairman of the building committee, spoke of the "hard work and trying times" that went into the planning of the building.

"Comrades," added Dawson, "you now have a new home - make good use of it."

Guest speaker for the evening was Doug McDonald, past Dominion president and vice-president of the Canadian Legion. He also had been branch president, zone and district commander, second vice-president and first vice-president of Ontario Command from 1969 to 1971.

"This branch is well known around the province for its 50 years of good service," said McDonald, "and the branch is well deserving of this great new building."

McDonald spoke of the

"continuing importance" of "looking after our fellow comrades."

"I think we have to ask ourselves," he said, "are we doing enough for the veterans?"

The nation-wide unity crisis was another topic of McDonald's speech.

"The Royal Canadian Legion called together knowledgeable people and presented a brief to the government. We obligated ourselves into the project and used all our resources to find an end."

McDonald discounted rumors that the Legion in Canada "is dying".

"We felt the time would come when sooner or later, we would need some help. But as I look around and see so many young people here tonight, I have no concern about the life of the Legion."

After the speeches were finished, building engineer Mike Nitsch and Cliff Dawson unveiled the official building plaque for the new addition. Following was the presentation of awards and plaques.

Greta Curry, president of the ladies auxiliary, presented a plaque to the branch from the auxiliary. A cheque of $1,500 was also pledged by the ladies to the branch.

Jean Cowen received a 10-year service pin, while Phil Graham, Lorne Morrison, Arnold Penn ycook and Bernard Sisson all received 30-year pins.

Albert Plumb was the lone recipient of the 40-year Legionnaire's pin.

Wes Baker, Andy Curry, Walter Noice and Stan Cooper were also on hand at the banquet. The four men are 50-year charter members of the Legion. Baker donated a plaque to the Legion which belonged to the Victoria-Haliburton 109th battalion. The plaque will be displayed along with the other memorabilia downstairs at the building.

Haliburton Highlights by Creighton Feir

It would be well worth your while the next time that you are on the main street in Haliburton to take a glance in the front window of the former IGA store in Haliburton and see the wonderful display of the model of the new proposed park which is to be located in Haliburton on Head Lake. You will also have the opportunity to view the beautiful colour photos of the park. Our thanks go out to Marshall Leighton for donating this space in his building.

Wally Stetham who is a member of the Rotary Club of Haliburton gave his classification talk to the club recently on "Heating and Airconditioning" along with energy saving devices. From all reports it was a very interesting talk.

The monthly dinner meeting of the Full Gospel Businessmen's Fellowship International (Haliburton Hyland Chapter) will be held this coming Saturday evening, November 18 at 7:00 p.m. at the Royal Canadian Legion Hall in Haliburton. Not only will those attending get their first glimpse of the new extension and renovations that have been made to the auditorium but also have the opportunity to hear an outstanding speaker. The speaker will be Joe Hodgson of Ottawa, a Catholic Charismatic, where he is Special Assistant to the Federal Assistant to the Federal Minister of Labour. Joe is a graduate from the University of Toronto. For many years he was quite active in athletics and has a Black Belt in Judo.

Time was made available at the Dysart Community Centre on Friday afternoon last for the students from the Haliburton schools to partake in public skating.

Politics has always been in my blood and no matter how hard I try I can't seem to get away from taking an active part or being interested in them. On Monday night I felt right at home helping to gather the results on the phone from the various municipalities in the County. Over the weekend I filed away what I thought would be the outcome of the various races and I am now in the process of checking them out with the final results that are in front of me.

This is the time of year that many citizens of Haliburton have left to are thinking of leaving for the sunny south to enjoy the sun while the rest of us are left to shovel the snow which will soon be on its way. We hope that they are enjoying themselves and have a good winter and we'll be looking for them to come back in the spring.

You never miss it until it is gone, certainly is the case with Wednesday night hockey games in television. Now that the rights to televise the mid-week contests have gone to an independent station that doesn't get its signal this far, a few people have been noting that they miss the games. Well, we cannot blame the Hamilton television station that won the rights to broadcast the games because they bid the most money. We cannot even blame CTV who had been running the games up until the past two years. Where was the CBC though? That is Canada's national network, owned by the people. Why couldn't they have put a bid in for the games? Not everyone watches hockey games, but we would bet that they draw a fair share of the viewing market. When you think about it we can't look for too much from the CBC when they can't even decide who is going to read the National News.

Haliburton Highlights

We often wonder if the people in Haliburton County who give their time and efforts in working with the young people receive the credit that they so richly deserve. We particularly are thinking of those who are teaching in our Sunday Schools, youth groups, minor hockey, boy scouts, brownies and guides and other clubs. We salute these people and give them a hearty vote of thanks. It is people like you, taking time off from your regular duties to help make our young people better citizens in the future.

Every year a business establishment takes stock, or in other terms, inventory. This should be the case with all of us as individuals. We should stop every now and again and take stock of ourselves. In other words, we should glance into the mirror and see where we are at and just where we are going. We must also ask ourselves the question, "is our community a better place in which to live because we are a part of it?" What we are trying to say is, are we really making an effort to play a part by belonging to organizations and by supporting worthy causes? We must remember that a community is just as good as the people who live in it. As we all go out to face another week, let's make it a point to stop criticizing other people and go out and try to see if we can't give someone a hand who has a problem. What a better world it will be and how good it will make you feel.

It is the opinion of many of the local businessmen in Haliburton that they are being called on to give too many donations to what is termed as worthy causes and various organizations. Most businessmen in the community are just struggling to make ends meet and it has come to the point where they are going to have to decide just what and where these donations are going to be given. Most people are of the opinion that just because a person is in business that they have lots of money to throw around. This is not the case and many have had to cut back in certain areas. In some cases the businessmen have been taken and a large sum of money, instead of being left in the community to be spent, went out of the county.

Harold Brodhagen who plays the violin and Tony Lee who teams up with Harold on the piano to make a great musical duo will be playing at the Royal Canadian Legion in London this coming Saturday night and the following Saturday will be playing at the Labatt's 50 Club in Lindsay.

The Haliburton U.C.W. will be holding a "Christmas Country Fair", Saturday, November 18, 1978 from 2 - 4 p.m. Free refreshments, sewing, homebaking, crafts and plants, Children's Corner - 50 cents and under, country store and delicatessen. Homemade mincemeat and christmas puddings.
